STRAGGLERS STILL LEADS

The Stragglers retained the premier position in the league by taking all three games from the Oahus last night.

For the Stragglers, Edgecomb had both high score and average, 209 and 187.

For the losers, Morath had high score, 187, while Rantz had average, 162.

Tonight—Bank of Hawaii vs. Honolulu.

The "W" team was formally organized last evening, and a match will be rolled Thursday against the "Pick of the League."

The "W's" are Williams (captain), Winne, Wilkinson, White and Wisdom.

The "Pick of the League," W. Loftus (captain), B. Loftus, Goulin, Rantz and Edgecomb.

This game is causing no little comment, and there is no doubt that a new record will be set on the Y alleys.

On Saturday at 5 p. m., Winne and Wisdom will play their 20-game endurance match against the Kaula team, the contest being of a wireless nature.

The scores:

BEN DE MELLO IS CONFIDENT OF BEATING GEORGE GILMORE

Word was received from Ben de Mello through his manager, Jockey Willis, by this morning's mail.

Ben is well and training hard for his coming contest with George Gilmore which takes place on March 9 at the Orpheum.

Willis states that he will have his man in better shape than when he boxed Hoos and thinks that he will certainly beat the San Franciscan as he will be sent after him all the way.

The Hilo boxer states that he is practically down to weight. He does not like the idea of the trip over as he is not a first-class sailor. He hopes, however, that the steamer will behave herself more circumspectly than was the case when he came to town last time.

Ben will arrive by the Claudine next Wednesday and will work out at the Orpheum on the following afternoon. The preliminaries will be as follows: Mike Werthy (Fort Shafter) will box Copeland (Fort De Roasy) four rounds at 124 pounds. Young Gans will meet Young Prince (Fort Shafter), six rounds, at 124 pounds, and Willer (Fort Shafter) will box Ralph Trier (Camp Vary) six rounds at 135 pounds.

Werthy is a newcomer who has shown considerable form with the gloves out Kahauki way. Copeland was beaten by Young Gans a couple of weeks ago but claims that a lucky punch laid him low and wants a chance to redeem himself.

TROTTING MEN BAR HOBBLES

CHICAGO, February 20.—Members of the American Trotting Association, at the biennial meeting of that organization today, made a drastic ruling against the use of hobbles. The association ruled that:

One—That hobbles will not be allowed on any horse four years old or under during the 1912 season.

Two—That hobbles will not be allowed on any horse five years old or under during the 1913 season.

Three—That hobbles will not be allowed on any horse six years old or under during the 1914 season.

This action, with a change of rule regarding points was the principal business decided by the meeting.

The new rule on points follows: "In deciding the rank of a horse the winner of two heats in a two-in-three race, or the winner of three heats in a five-heat race, shall be entitled to first money."

"In deciding the rank of horses other than the winner the horse having the smallest total number of points in the summary is entitled to second money; the next smallest to third money and the next to fourth money."

"A dead heat shall count one for each horse making it, but where a deciding heat is necessary the horses starting in such deciding heat shall be entitled to first and second money, according to their position in that heat."

The following matches have been played in the wall cup competition:

Bockus beat F. Hoogs, 6-2, 6-1; Deen beat C. Hoogs, 6-3, 6-3.

MAUI DIDN'T GET EXCITED

A Maui sportsman writes the sporting editor of The Star as follows:

"There will be a meeting of the Maui Racing Association on next Friday evening, March 1, to act upon the Fourth of July program proposed by the executive committee at their last meeting. The track at Kahului is in fine shape, and the first string of gallopers are expected to occupy stalls before the 15th of next month."

"Our people here do not seem to be the least excited over the appearance in the Honolulu papers, of a race program for Hilo on July 4. Everybody here seems to be of the opinion, that though the Hilo purses and promises are larger and more than Maui offers, our Past Records and Stringless Purse will be the means of our receiving a fair patronage from a fair-minded sportsman in the Territory of Hawaii."

"I shall forward you the program as passed by the association, as soon as possible."

OLYMPIC SWIMS IN SALT WATER

CHICAGO, February 20.—Duke Kahanamoku and Vincent Genoves, Hawaiian aspirants for places on the American Olympic swimming team, stopped here today on their way to Pittsburgh, where they will compete in the 220 and 500-yard swims to be held by the Pittsburgh clubs. Kahanamoku will compete in the sprint races, while Genoves will attempt to land a place in the distance event.

Neither man has had any experience in tank swimming or in fresh-water work, but both hold records for salt-water courses. The fact that the Olympic swims will be held in sea water, they say, gives them the right to be considered when the championships are held.

SPORT FROM COAST FILES

Al Palzer and Bombardier Wells have been matched to box in San Francisco on July 4. Eddie Graney is the promoter of the bout.

Hobbles have been barred by the American Trotting Association.

Boxer Walter Coffey is back at the Coast.

Willie Ritchie is returning to the Coast.

Joee Mandot had the best of a ten-round bout with Pal Moore.

Packey McFarland and One Round Hogan box ten rounds in New York in March. The boxers will meet at 135 pounds. It will be the first meeting of the two men. Neither will engage in another bout in the meantime.

Ferdinand Poggenburg of New York defeated Charles Conklin of Chicago for the national billiard championship. Conklin held the title for some time and his defeat was a great surprise.

ENGLAND'S CRICKETERS WIN FOURTH TEST WITH AUSTRALIA

MELBOURNE, February 13.—The fourth test match between England and Australia was concluded on the Melbourne Cricket Ground this morning, and resulted in a win for England by an innings and 225 runs.

The weather was dull and there had been a little rain overnight.

The Australian batting again failed, all the batsmen being in difficulties, though the wicket was excellent to the finish.

The only bright spot in the innings was the batting of Carter, who went in first and made 38, top score, and played a bright, plucky innings.

By winning this match England also wins the rubber.

The Englishmen received an ovation on returning to the pavilion.

The scores:
England—First Innings:

Hobbs	178
Rhodes	179
Hearne	0
Gunn	75
Douglas	0
Foster	50
Woolley	56
Mead	21
Smith	7
Barnes	0
Vine, not out	4
Extras	19

Total 589
Bowling analysis: Armstrong took three wickets for 83, Horder 3 for 137, Minnett 3 for 59, Kelleway 1 for 80.

Australia—First Innings:

Kelleway	29
Horder	19
Bardsley	0
Trumper	17
Armstrong	7

Total 589
Bowling analysis: Barnes took two wickets for 47, Foster 3 for 38, Douglas 5 for 46.

The attendance on the first day was 13,224.

The English score, 589, is a record for test matches, the previous highest total having been 586, made by Australia at Sydney in 1894, and the highest by England, 577, at Sydney in 1903.

Minnett, the Australian colt, who made the highest score for the Australians, also secured the best bowling average—3 for 59.

The attendance in the second day was 31,695.

The opening partnership made 323, which is a record for the first wicket in test matches.

management of Ye Liberty Theater, and it is said this is the first act of their regular vaudeville service to be in effect here and in Australia. The quartet is composed of Marie A. Oetzel, soprano; Estelle Gervaise, contralto; Lucy L. Wisdom, tenor, and Maurice Jourdan, baritone.

Moving Pictures at Opera House Last Night.

The "Maori Wizard" at the Opera House last night pleased the audience with his sleight-of-hand and his pictures of New Zealand and Australia. They fully substantiated all he had to say of them previous to the performance and gave many people a new conception of those southern lands. The picture of Pelorous Jack was particularly interesting and disabused the minds of many that the story of this wonderful fish is a fake.

This company had expected to play a longer engagement here, but owing to arrangements made on the coast, and to the fact that they could not secure a house sooner than they did, limited their exhibition to one night.

They have several films of Hawaii which will be displayed on the mainland and in England.

Green stamp collectors take notice. Beautiful new goods have arrived. Rugs, tea and dinner sets, clocks and other articles too numerous to mention. Come in and see them.
